DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 31-60 are presented for examination.
2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/25/08 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 6/25/08, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
4. Amendment to claims 51 to recite a tangible program carrier does not overcome 35 U.S.C. 101 rejection. The Examiner suggests to delete the term "carrier" from page 13 line 20 of the specification to overcome this rejection.
5. In that remarks, applicant's argues in substance:
 - a. That: applicant argues Dwek show a network where a single server is connected to multiple other client computers, NOT the other way around, i.e., the user of a client computer connected to multiple data stores and computer as described in the independent claims.

In response to applicant's argument, Dwek in figure 1 shows client computers 130 are connected to plurality of servers (112, 114, 116, 118).

Updated rejection is provided.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

6. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

7. Claims 51-60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. See MPEP § 2106.01. Claims 51-60 recites “an article of manufacture comprising a tangible computer program carrier readable by a computer”, however, a computer program having code recorded on a computer readable medium such as carrier wave or optical wave is not tangible since such computer transport medium does not fall into the categories of “process”, “machine”, “manufacture” and “composition of matter”. Furthermore, the computer program stored on carrier wave is not operable if not executed by a computer or system. Therefore, the inoperative of the computer program stored on a computer transport medium lacks utility. Intrinsic evidence as disclosed in page 13 lines 16-22 of the specification. Applicant
